Most probably, you are talking about the transporter mod. 93MC20. The gear box assembly was made by us and the remaining was built by another manufacturer. We have never had the spare parts catalogue but, in case, we could supply for reference the tables of the transporter 93LI but only for the gear box.

Regards

Daniela

Dear Daniela,

Can you send us by e-mail a copy of the spare parts list for Ferrari 93MC2?

Thanks & regards,
 Lozeman Tuinmachines Elst B.V.
